

I am concerned that Sinclair Broadcasting is using public airwaves to further their personal agenda. Stolen Honor is a anti-Kerry film that Sinclair Broadcasting plans to air on public (free) airwaves. Is this legal? Does this really serve the public's interest? I think not. I read that they claim not to be supporting one candidate over another, but then how do you explain all the corporate donations they have made to Bush and the Republicans Party. No matter who you decide to vote for on November 2, this is wrong. When a broadcasting company can use public airwaves like this it really demonstrates the dangers of media consolidation. They are forcing their own views on the public whether we like it or not. I would ask that you stop them from manipulating the media in this way.

I await your reply.
Respectfully,
Kathryn Como